BOOK FAIR REPORT

Thank you to all who came along and supported our annual Book Fair. The Resource Centre has received over $700 of new books in commission. Prizes were awarded for best dressed at our family evening, congratulations to Sienna, Tattyana and Steven. Lucky door prize winners were Kelly P, Emily, Will and Seth. Also a big thank you to Miss Mugridge and her helpers who did a fantastic job of the decorations which are still in Resource Centre, so if you missed out on seeing them, please come in and have a look. My personal thanks to my helpers during the fair, couldn't do it without you. Mrs Johns - Book Fair Coordinator

Week 4 - Next week our focus is – BE SAFE – Report any problems

The safety of our students is paramount and students need to be taught what is safe and what needs to be reported to an adult. The lessons and reminders throughout the week will focus on helping students to categorise problems into the following areas -

- Problem to Report
- Problem for Me to Solve
- Not My Problem

HOMEWORKCLUB NEWS

There will be NO Homework Club in Week 6— Wednesday 11th November with Miss Cover.

Sports Report

Congratulations to two of our students, Atlanta and Heath who recently competed at Qld. State Titles. Atlanta from year 7 competed in the State Gymkhana for Horse Riding. She performed very well with the highlight being 6th place out of 55 riders in the Camp draft. Heath from year 6 competed at the Qld. Track & Field Titles in Townsville. He competed in the 100 and 200m events. Heath came 6th in his 100m heat in a time of 13.30s and the highlight of making the semi-final in the 200m, coming 5th place and doing a personal best time of 28.06s. A fantastic effort by both students!

Congratulations also to Eloise, Madi and Mark who competed in the Darling Downs Aquathlon at Dalby. Aquathlon involves a run, swim, run format of varying distances. Mark came 29th, Madi 26th and Eloise 19th in their races.

Well done!

Don't forget to nominate your individual or team (5yrs – adults) for the Inglewood Aquathlon Sunday 8th November (briefing 7.30am) at the pool. Check the Macintyre Tri 'N' Run Facebook page <https://facebook.com/macintyrettrinrun>

Year 5/6 Tallebudgera Camp

Excitement is building in the Year 5/6 class with the end of year camp creeping ever closer! On Monday November 30th the class will head off to the Tallebudgera Beach School for a week of aquatic adventure, surf safety, personal development, problem solving, team building, and leadership activities. Tallebudgera Beach School is an Education Queensland Outdoor Education Centre and is the largest surf education school in Australia. The Beach School motto – Courtesy, Consideration, Co-operation and Common Sense is developed through activities like canoeing, sailing, raft building, tobogganing and orienteering. Look out for our 'After Camp' report!

Remember: No Music lessons with Jill Hulme
