News from PERFORMING ARTS

Junior Choir Report

Phew! Last term was phenomenal, but term 4 is really flying! It's been great to spend time enjoying our new songs and preparing for Christmas. We are hoping to have a couple more public appearances before the end of 2015 – stay tuned for more info.

Christmas Concert

Wednesday December 9th is the day to circle on your calendars; the concert starts at 9:30am and will end by 11:30am – all interested friends and family are welcome and encouraged to attend.

This year's concert will deliver the usual fare of performing arts talent; each primary class will present an individual item in addition to performances from the choir, vocal and piano recitals, a few surprises from the older grades, and a visual art display which promises to be magnificent yet again. If you have any questions about the day or the program please contact your child's Classroom teacher or Mrs Leisa Cranna (Arts teacher) via the school office.

Thanks for supporting the Arts

CHAPPY CHALLENGE

Last week's winner is Tully. The answer is that a dry, square sheet of paper can only be folded 7 times.

This week's question is: Which pole is colder, the south pole or the north pole?

CHAPPY CHUCKLE

Winner for this week is Ruby in Year 5/6. Her joke is: Where do sheep get their hair cut?

The baaa-baaa's

CHAPPY CARE BEARS
