MYW Workshops

The Macintyre Young Writer's school workshops were held in Goondiwindi on Friday 18th August. Four students from Inglewood State School's Year 6 class – Sophie, Kelly, Bec and Madi were fortunate to be invited to participate in two one-hour classes. As part of the Poetry and Arts Festival, these workshops were designed to promote and encourage originality and creativity in children's writing. Brisbane poet, Matt Hetherington, conducted the first workshop on Haiku, a Japanese form of poetry. Students were introduced to Matt's own version of Haiku and led through a series of activities to create their own. Following Matt's five rules – Short, Prose-like, In the now!, Nature and Senses, students went on a 'GINKO'.

Caitlin Armstrong is a physical comedian, cabaret performer, street artist, storyteller and clown. She held a completely captivated audience of Year 6 students in the palm of her hand leading them through 'Analytical Rehearsal of Emotion and Style' activities. Creativity and expression of emotions were the order of the day, the full participation of all students and a most entertaining hour, a testament to the success of the program.

Many thanks to the MYW organisation and its sponsors for putting together this wonderful festival and for including Inglewood State School students.

Chappy Chatter with Chappy Jason

This week I wanted to promote all of the upcoming SU QLD Camps that will be on in the September School Holidays. There are dozens of spring camps right across Queensland. Students could go on a Music Camp, an Epic Camp (Beerwah), a King of the Mountain Camp (Yandina), a Boys only or Girls only Camp, a Sports Camp (Brisbane), or even a Splash Out Camp (Caboolture). No matter where you live, how old you are or what you like, there is a camp for you! In our local Southern Queensland region there will be SWAK Camp (South West Active Kids) held at Atkinsons Dam near Gatton or you could choose to go to Stanthorpe and be involved in the Kids Games day programs that will run there. Just visit www.sucamps.org.au/?season=spring to check out all of the options or talk to Chappy Jason. All SU camps are very affordable and run by well trained, Blue Card approved leaders and School Chaplains. All SU Camps have daily Christian content as part of the camp.
